

1781

Birthplace of James Poole.
All Saints Church,
Baschurch, Shropshire

1814

Birth of Henry Poole.

1828

Opens tailors showroom
and workshops at 4 - 5 Old Burlington Street with rear entrance in Savile Row.

1858

Court tailors to Emperor
Napoleon III.

1865

Tailors to Charles Dickens.

1869

Given Royal Warrant by Queen Victoria for making
State Liveries.

1876

Death of Henry Poole.
Control passed to Henry's cousin Samuel Cundey.

1883

Death of Samuel Cundey.
Control passed to Howard
Cundey.

1907

Birth of Hugh Howard.

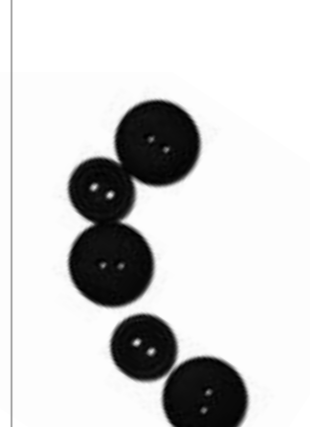

1911

Opening of Paris branch at Rue Tronchet, 8e.

1927

Death of Howard Cundey.

1937

Birth of Angus
Howard Cundey.

1946

First selling trip to the USA.

1952

Granted livery warrant to
HM Queen Elizabeth II.

1964

First agreement with the Matsuzakaya Company of Japan.

1980/81

Deaths of Hugh
Howard & Sam
Cundey respectively.

1985

Registration of Henry
Poole 'House Check'.

2004

40th Anniversary in Japan.

2005

Made uniforms for the 200th anniversary of the Battle of Trafalgar.

1995

Trunk shows with fittings in the USA.

1996

Won the UK Fashion
Export award.

1806

James Poole opens tailors
shop, 6, Everett Street,
Russell Square, London.

1823

James Poole opens showroom
at 171 Regent Street.

1823

Birth of Samuel Cundey.

1846

James Poole's death. Henry
Poole makes main entrance
at 36-39 Savile Row.

1860

Tailors to the Prince of Wales, later King Edward III.

1871

Made Western clothes for first Japanese Ambassador to London. Hence the word 'Sabiro' meaning suit
in Japanese.

1886

Introduced short dining jacket to Tuxedo Park, New York. Hence the name 'Tuxedo' in USA.

1905

First order by Sir
Winston Churchill.

1905

Birth of Samuel Henry
Howard (Sam) Cundey.

1921

Made garments for the Emperor of Japan.

1940

Made garments for General de Gaulle.

1961

Demolition of 37-39 Savile
Row to make way for a car park!

1968

Birth of Simon Goran
Howard Cundey.

1982

The opening of Henry
Poole at 15, Savile Row.

2003

Reopened the Livery Department for the continued making of Ceremonial Dress.

2006

Henry Poole
Bicentenary.

2006

Henry Poole opens showroom in Beijing, China.

